LOCAL NEWS.

—Clean up.
—Paved Main street, that sounds good.

—Henry Henke has purchased a 36-De Tumble automobile.
—To-night, Tuesday, at the new armory Co. E and the Rink Five play the third game of the series of five games.

—Dr. Reed Burns, of Scranton, performed an operation upon Mrs. H. T. Davies, Fourteenth street, for appendicitis on Monday.

—The Citizen will be found in the procession to be formed in behalf of the candidate, whoever he may be, that receives the Republican nomination for the presidency at Chicago.

—There is a scarcity of domestic sizes of coal in Honesdale. Up to within a few days Hawley has furnished some with a supply, but is now out off. Teams are now drawing coal from Narrowsburg.

—The farmers of Wayne county are requested to read the Board of Trade article found elsewhere in today's Citizen telling how they may increase their bank account.

—The Holy Hour service was observed in St. John's R. C. church between half past seven and half past eight on Sunday evening. It consisted of an hour spent in prayer and hymns. This is the first time this service was ever observed in Honesdale.

—Last Thursday evening's Delaware & Hudson passenger train was an hour and fifteen minutes late owing to a wreck at Minooka. A broken wheel caused the trouble. Five cars were piled up and traffic was suspended for several hours. Fortunately no one was injured. The wreck also affected Friday morning's train, it too, being late.

—A man by the name of Moran is reported to have fallen from one of the high windows of the American House on Saturday, severely injuring his person. The circumstances of the affair could not be learned by a reporter who called. It was stated that the accident occurred from one of the rear windows and that the fall rendered the man unconscious until the aid of a doctor was called.

—Swat the fly.

—Is your back yard free from rubbish?

—The Five Hundred club will meet with Miss Minnie Schuller on Thursday night.

—Married, April 10, by Rev. J. H. Boyce, Carley Brook, Miss Irene Heerligan and G. H. Griffin.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Canfield, of Tyler Hill, are the happy parents of a son born Thursday, April 11.

—Cleve Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mills, was taken to the Scranton State hospital on Friday last for treatment for an abscess in his mouth, caused by defective teeth.

—At a meeting of the trustees of the Honesdale Presbyterian church last Friday afternoon H. Scott Salmon was elected president; W. H. Lee secretary and C. T. Bentley treasurer.

—Kreitner Bros. will remodel the third floor of the Dodge building, converting same into a studio for J. A. Bodie, photographer. A skylight is one of the principal improvements that will be made.

—Superintendent Heeter, formerly of St. Paul, Minn., who has just started on his work as head of the Pittsburgh school system, in a recent address declared the Pennsylvania School Code "The most comprehensive, the most modern, and the most practical of any public school measure that has ever been enacted in any commonwealth in the Union."

—With a cessation of coal mining there has come a laying off of numerous train crews on all the railroads. There is no coal to haul, and the railroad men are the first to suffer. Williamsport, Corning, Elmira, Waverly and other division ends in this locality, are full of idle railroad men, for whom there will be no work until the coal trouble is settled.

—Get your sale bills printed at the Citizen office. Large size, extra strong paper; bold, clear type that will stand out prominent, and careful workmanship by skilled printers. Free notice of sale will be inserted in The Citizen if the bills are printed at this office. We can do anything in the line of printing. Citizen printing bears the imprint of quality.

—The following is a list of contributions in the Presbyterian church from April, 1911, to April, 1912: Home Missions, $914; Foreign Missions, $539; Board of Education, $15; Put, and Sunday school work, $54; Church Extension, $40; Relief Fund, $50; Freedmen, $60; College Aid, $60; Temperance, $80; General Assembly, $67; Congregational expense, $3887; Miscellaneous, $113.

—Mrs. Joseph Goldbach, one of Hawley's pioneer residents, died on Saturday, April 13, following a paralytic stroke, which she suffered that day. She was eighty years of age and was born in Germany, and had been a resident of Hawley for over forty years. She is survived by two daughters and two sons. She was a member of the Lutheran church there and was highly respected and esteemed by a large circle of friends.

—The B. I. A. All Stars of Scranton again beat the local champions at the rink on Friday night in a fast and hard game, the result of which was in doubt up to the last moment of play. The work of Quinlan and Scull featured for the Scranton champions. Harry Madden, superintendent of the B. I. A. association, sang two solos between halves in his usual pleasing way and one of the largest crowds of the season turned out to see the double attraction. Final score, 18 to 13.

—The annual Easter supper at the Baptist church last Thursday evening was the most successful one held in several years. This popular affair was largely attended, the sum of $114, net, being realized. Home-made candy and fancy work were on sale, in addition to the supper, the candy booth netting $10, and fancy work $6.00. This congregation has taken a new lease on life under the able pastorate of Rev. George S. Wendell, who has a pleasing personality both in the pulpit and when mingling with his people. We trust that both church and pastor will continue to prosper.

—Thousands of dollars have been wasted in the State of Pennsylvania by reason of a bad system of keeping school accounts. The new Code throws a number of safeguards around the business operations of school boards, which it is believed will be advantageous to the whole system. Honorable William Lauder, a member of the State Board of Education and the originator of the code idea, has submitted to that Board a preliminary report on a system of keeping accounts in school districts of the fourth class. Later the matter will be extended to districts of other classes. The adoption of such a system will mean uniformity throughout the state. Under this system it will be possible to make correct comparisons between the different districts. This will give to the Pennsylvania system of education pre-eminent standing.

—Arrangements are being made for the Literary contest to be held in the Lyric opera house, Friday evening, April 19. It will be remembered that two years ago when Carbondale came over with a special train to attend the contest that they were not very successful in winning points. The pupils of the Honesdale High school are working hard to prevent their winning points this time. Professor Oday goes to Carbondale Wednesday afternoon and furnishes Carbondale with what tickets they desire. As they are the visitors it is no more than fair that they should have first choice in the matter of seats. The seats will be put on sale in Honesdale Thursday morning at 8:30. The prices are 25, 35 and 50 cents. It is expected that the eighty in the choruses from each school will be seated on the stage. At the last contest there were about four hundred on the stage, but the authorities found it to be too crowded, so this year they will not put over two hundred. As the capacity of the opera house is limited those who wish to hear the contest must purchase their tickets early. At the last contest the seats were all sold before noon of the first day.

—The town council is covering the trolley tracks, where they are exposed, with crushed stone.

—Frank Schuerholz is in the possession of a beautiful blue heron, which was shot on Monday in the vicinity of Beachlake.

—Mrs. G. F. Mandeville died at her home in Ariel on Thursday, April 11. Further particulars concerning her life are wanting.

—A sample of the official ballot of New York is displayed at Schuerholz's. It is nearly 10 feet long. No wonder it takes nearly two days to count the returns.

—Surveys and measurements on the proposed road that is to go from Honesdale to Moscow via. Cherry Ridge and Lake Ariel are being made by surveyors.

—Marriage licenses were recently granted to Miss Ada Osgood, of Salem, and Floyd Shaffer, of Ariel; also to Mrs. Ellen Cawley and William T. Hopkins, of Audell.

—Political upheavals, as well as financial panics, are due every few years. We will have the time when matters will quiet down, and stagnated business take a boom.

—While we are bowing to the will of the majority as expressed at the primaries we should at the same time be buckling our belts tighter in anticipation of the campaign that is to follow the nomination at Chicago for President.

—The following letters remain at the Honesdale postoffice: Clark Branning, Miss Helen M. Bunnell, Miss Elizabeth Clifford, W. C. Matier, Miss Rose Racht, Pearl Strucker, Jonas Westfield, Homer Willson, M. B. Allen, postmaster.

—The following from the Scranton Tribune-Republican voices our sentiments: The primary election gave opportunity for every man to express his opinion. Let us keep this in mind. Republicans can have different opinions and still be friends.

—The Hawley Times of last week stated that Prof. Creasy of the High school of that place was dismissed from the principalship of that school. The action will lower the rating of the school from that of first class to that of second class in this state. The action on the part of the board was to cut down expenses.

—The boy scouts will meet in uniform at the school house Thursday evening, at 7:30, to elect patrol leaders and troop officers for the following year. Chief Burgess C. A. McCarty has very kindly promised to be present and instruct the boys in parliamentary practice. After the meeting there will be a drill in the gymnasium.

—The expected big crop of maple sugar from Wayne county has gone where the peach crop went. From nearly every section of the county comes news of the shortage of the maple sugar crop. The season was a very short one and the farmers who had the good luck to start early are the ones who have the most of the finished product.

—John Gregory, of Prompton, died at his home on Friday night. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Alice, Carrie and Harriet, the two latter being teachers in New Jersey, while the former teaches in the Honesdale schools. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. Whitaker, were held at his late home and were in charge of the Masons. The pallbearers were Judge A. T. Searle, H. A. Oday, O. M. Spettigue, H. T. Menner, Fred Stevens and Charles Deln. A delegation of 20 Masons attended the funeral.
